

Deloitte.

Access Economics

86% of the seafood SFM sources from NSW comes from regional areas, weighing over 6,800 tonnes and worth $53 million in 2015-16

By trading seafood and attracting tourism, SFM contributes $41 million in value added and supports 254 jobs in regional NSW's fishing and tourism supply chains

North Coast
Value added $13.6m
78 FTE jobs

Sydney and Surrounds
Value added $154.4m
1,498 FTE jobs

The Hunter
Value added $9.9m
59 FTE jobs

South Coast
Value added $14.3m
90 FTE jobs

Central Coast
Value added $1.6m
9 FTE jobs

Rest of NSW
Value added $1.7m
18 FTE jobs

Sydney Fish Market trade and visitation supports regional economies and jobs

Source: Deloitte Access Economics, based on Sydney Fish Market data, using Tourism Research Australia regions.

Note: Value added and employment contributions for the other regions were small or negligible.