Privacy Statement

Introduction

This Privacy Statement explains what personal information we may gather about you and how we may use and share your personal information in relation to the assessment and evaluation of questionnaire responses received through Deloitte Diligence. This Privacy Statement also sets out your rights in relation to your personal information and tells you who you can contact if you have questions.

To whom does this Privacy Statement apply and what does it cover?

This Privacy Statement applies to Deloitte Consulting Pty Ltd (also referred to as "Deloitte", "we", "us", and "our"), an entity within the Deloitte Network. As used in this Privacy Statement, the "Deloitte Network" refers to one or more of Deloitte Touche Tohmatsu Limited, a UK private company limited by guarantee ("DTTL"), its network of member firms, affiliates and their related entities. DTTL and each of its member firms are legally separate and independent entities. Please see <https://www2.deloitte.com/au/en/pages/about-deloitte/articles/about-deloitte.html> for a more detailed description of DTTL and its member firms.

This Privacy Statement sets out how we will process your personal information as part of providing services to your employer (our "Client" or "Your Organisation"). This includes any personal information that you might provide through your use of Deloitte Diligence, which we may use to assist in the provision of those services ("Deloitte Diligence Platform").

The services that we provide to Your Organisation, and if applicable the organisation that you provide services to, may include an independent assessment of the responses received to questionnaires distributed through Deloitte Diligence. This assessment will generally be provided in the form of a written report.

Your personal information will be protected and handled with consideration for its confidentiality and we will only disclose it as set out in the "To whom will we disclose your personal information?" section below.

In this Privacy Statement, we refer to handling, collecting, protecting and storing your personal information as "processing".

What personal information do we collect?

In providing the services described above we may collect personal information relating to you such as:

- Name
- Company name
- Job title

- E-mail
- Phone number

In providing services to our Client, we do not intend to receive or process personal information about you that may be considered special category (or “sensitive”) personal information (special category personal information is considered to include information about your health, racial or ethnic origin, political opinions, religious or philosophical beliefs, trade union membership, genetic data, biometric data or sexual orientation). If you choose to provide such special category information to us (for example, as part of your responses to specific questions we ask you) we will interpret this action as your consent in order for us to process it for the purposes described in this Privacy Statement.

How do we collect personal information?

Deloitte may collect personal information about you in different ways:

- You may provide it directly to us through your use of the Deloitte Diligence Platform;
- We may obtain it from Your Organisation (our Client) in order to provide engagement services; and
- We may observe or infer it from the information you provide to us and/or the way you interact with us.

This personal information can be received in any manner, including in-person discussions, telephone conversations, and electronic or other written communications.

Where another party (e.g. Your Organisation) provides your personal information to us, they must also comply with their obligations under the relevant privacy laws and regulations. If you believe that Your Organisation has not provided you with details of the personal information that it holds about you and/or has not obtained your authority to provide us with that personal information for processing as described in this Privacy Statement, then please contact such entity directly.

How do we use your personal information?

Deloitte processes personal information about you to:

- Provide you with access to the Deloitte Diligence Platform; and
- Provide Your Organisation or the organisation that you provide services to with information about our analysis.

We may also use your personal information in limited circumstances for the purposes of, or in connection with:

- Compliance with applicable legal, regulatory or professional requirements;
- Protecting our rights and/or property.

We may also use aggregate and anonymised data (i.e. data that does not identify you or Your Organisation) to improve our products, services and procedures.

Can you remain anonymous or use a pseudonym?

If you wish to remain anonymous or to use a pseudonym when dealing with us, the level of information or services we can provide may be limited. In many cases, without access to all the personal information that we need we will be unable to provide or complete the services. This is because many of our services are highly personalised, meaning that they are heavily dependent upon the individual circumstances of Your Organisation. A lack of information may also affect our ability to properly analyse your circumstances, as a result, our network analysis may not be completely appropriate or suitable for Your Organisation.

On what basis do we process personal information about you?

This Privacy Statement sets out the grounds upon which we rely in order to process your personal information.

We may use your personal information for the purposes outlined above because:

- (a) We have a legitimate interest in processing your personal information, which may be to:
  - Provide services to you, Your Organisation or (if applicable) the organisation that you provide services to;
  - Support the management of our service engagements;
  - Evaluate, develop or improve our services or products; or
  - Protect our business interests; or
- (b) We are subject to legal, regulatory or professional obligations.

To whom will we disclose your personal information?

In connection with one or more of the purposes outlined in this Privacy Statement, we may disclose your personal information to:

- Your Organisation;
- The organisation that you provide services to such as a Superannuation Fund;
- Other members of the Deloitte Network;
- Competent authorities, including courts and authorities regulating us or another member of the Deloitte Network, in each case to comply with legal, regulatory or professional obligations or requests; and
- Platform provider, vendors and administrative support, infrastructure and other service providers handling your information on our behalf; in each case, such vendors and service providers will be contractually bound by confidentiality and privacy obligations consistent with the obligations in this Privacy Statement.

Deloitte does not sell or lease your personal information to others.

Please note that some of the recipients of your personal information referred to above may sometimes be located in other countries, in particular the United States of America, the United Kingdom and the United Arab Emirates (for a complete list of Deloitte Offices around the world, please refer to the Deloitte Global Office Directory). Where those countries do not have data protection rules similar to those in effect in your area of residence, appropriate safeguards will be in place to protect your personal information.

For further details about the transfers described above and the adequate safeguards used by Deloitte with respect to such transfers, please contact us using the details below.

How do we protect your information?

We hold personal information in hard copy and electronic formats. We use a range of physical, operational and technological security measures to protect this information. These measures include:

- Staff education and training to ensure our staff are aware their privacy obligations when handling your personal information
- Administrative and technical controls to restrict access to personal information to only those people who need access
- Technological security measures, including fire walls, encryption and anti-virus software
- Physical security measures, such as staff security passes to access Deloitte premises, laptop cable locks and the use of privacy screens where appropriate.

What are your rights in relation to your personal information?

You have various rights in relation to your personal information. In particular, you have a right to:

- Obtain confirmation that we are processing your personal information and request a copy of the personal information we hold about you
- Ask that we update the personal information we hold about you, or correct such information that you think is inaccurate or incomplete

Depending on the jurisdiction in which you are located, you may also have the right to:

- Ask that we delete personal information that we hold about you, or restrict the way in which we use your personal information;
- Withdraw consent to our processing of your personal information (to the extent our processing is based on your consent);
- Ask us to stop or start sending you marketing messages at any time;
- Obtain and/or move your personal information to another service provider; and
- Object to our processing of your personal information.

Where our processing of special category personal information is reliant on your consent and you withdraw that consent, we will cease processing the relevant information for the purposes of providing our services and the effect may be that we are no longer able to provide the services.

However, we may still retain a copy of the relevant information for as long as necessary to comply with applicable laws or professional standards, or as long as the period in which litigation or investigations might arise in respect of our services.

To exercise any of your rights or raise any questions that you have about our use of your personal information, please contact your Deloitte Representative (who is the person that you usually correspond with at Deloitte) or the Deloitte Privacy Officer at privacy@deloitte.com.au.

How can you access your personal information, or seek to have it corrected?

You may access your personal information, or seek to have that information corrected if you believe that it is incorrect, at any time.

To request access, or to correct your personal information, please contact the Deloitte Australia Privacy Officer at privacy@deloitte.com.au. Your Deloitte representative or the privacy team will then get in contact with you (either by phone or via email) and will work with you to provide you with access to your information or to determine whether it requires correction.

Who can you contact if you have further questions or if you wish to make a complaint?

Who should you contact?

If you have any questions or concerns regarding your privacy, or if you would like to make a complaint, please contact the Deloitte Australia Privacy Officer at:

Privacy Officer

Where can I find out more about my privacy rights?

For further information about privacy and the protection of privacy, visit the Office of the Australian Information Commissioner's website at www.oaic.gov.au.

What is our process for making changes to this Privacy Statement?

We may modify or amend this Privacy Statement from time to time.

To let you know when we make changes to this Statement, we will amend the revision date at the top of this page. The new modified or amended Privacy Statement will apply from that revision date. Therefore, we encourage you to periodically review this Statement to be informed about how we are protecting your information.
