

Notice to all grain and wool clients – sent via email

9 November 2011

We have been advised that the ASX24 has today released a notification of a fixed price tender for grain and wool markets (ASX 24 Notice: 221/11). The Fixed Price Tender will open on 10 November 2011. The ASX advice to us stated:

“Whilst it is expressly stated in the Notice, for the avoidance of doubt, I would highlight that:

- the Fixed Price Tender is related solely to the establishment of positions and nothing to do with transfer of positions.
- market users wishing to participate in the Fixed Price Tender must have arrangements in place with an ASX 24 Trading Participant and an ASX Clear (Futures) Clearing Participant.

Please feel free to forward the Notice to any of the MF Global clients who may have had open positions in the relevant Fixed Price Tender Eligible Grain and Wool contracts prior to MF Global going into administration.”

As this may be of interest to MFGA grain and wool clients we have forward this email together with the below links to the ASX website : http://www.sfe.com.au/content/notices/2011/notice2011_221.pdf
