Dear Natasha

I would like to congratulate you and Deloitte Australia for being inducted onto Queensland's inaugural Domestic and Family Violence Prevention Honour Roll under the Corporates category.

Domestic violence is everyone's business, and through the Honour Roll the Government aims to recognise those individuals and organisations who have made it theirs. In its first year, and in the midst of the COVID-19 pandemic, Honour Roll received an incredible 175 nominations for 140 individuals, community organisations and small and large businesses who are playing their part to raise awareness of, or take action against domestic and family violence.

Deloitte Australia was nominated to the Honour Roll in recognition of your action to prevent domestic and family violence, raise awareness and support people impacted by domestic and family violence in Queensland.

In addition to the enclosed certificate, signed by both Annastacia Palaszczuk, Premier and Minister for Trade and myself, your organisation will be listed and profiled, on <https://qld.gov.au/notknownoteverttogether>.

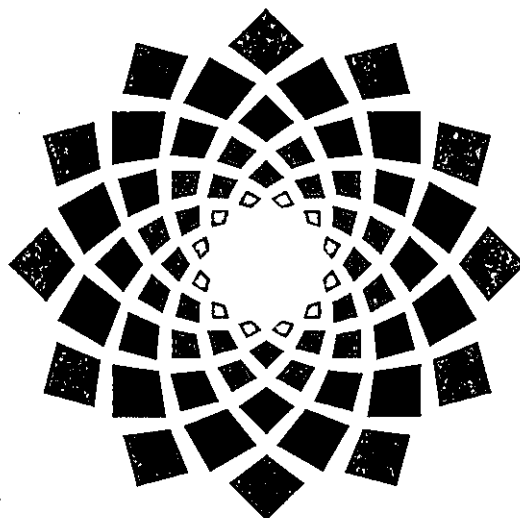

I am proud to acknowledge Deloitte Australia as an inductee of the Honour Roll and I encourage you to pass my thanks to your staff and members for playing their part in preventing domestic and family violence and supporting those who experience it.

Congratulations to your organisation on being recognised for your contribution.

Yours sincerely
