Deloitte Legal – Considering future

The State Migration Service of the Republic of Azerbaijan has temporarily waived the requirement on notarial certification of the documents submitted during electronic applications

According to the information provided by the State Migration Service of the Republic of Azerbaijan on 31 March 2020, considering the special quarantine regime applied within the country due to coronavirus (COVID-19) outbreak, electronic application for foreigners and stateless persons has been simplified.

Thus, until 30 April 2020, during electronic applications with the State Migration Service on obtaining/extension of work, temporary and permanent residence permits, documents of the applicants who are unable to arrange for notarial or equivalent certification will be accepted without such certification.

The documents in the required format may be requested later, where necessary.
