

GDPR Self-Check (for companies outside EU)

Depending on the above, you might be subject to different requirements

What you have to understand about processing of personal data in your company:

Which categories of personal data do you process?

How transparent is your data processing?

Are there any recipients, either controllers, processors or joint controllers to whom you disclose personal data, including cross-border transfers?

For which purposes?

How transferrable is your data?

What processing operations you perform on them?

What are your safeguard mechanisms for ensuring data security?

Do your counterparties comply with data privacy requirements?

For how long do you store them?

Did you obtain consents/make notifications to data subjects?

Where do you store them?

Depending on the above, “Must” have:

Data Privacy Terms
for your Web-site operations

Data Privacy Terms
for your customers or other third party subjects

Data Privacy Terms for your employees

Data Privacy related contractual provisions for your vendors
