

Accountancy Consultant

Your job

As an Accountancy Consultant you will be part of a multidisciplinary team of Accountancy Consultants, Tax and Legal Consultant KMO/PME in one of our 11 offices. This way, we can reply to the many questions of our clients, the most important small and medium businesses, entrepreneurs and private individuals in Belgium. A successful management goes definitely hand in hand with professional financial reporting, accurate and reliable tax and legal advice and relevant management consulting.

As a starting Accountancy Consultant you will get to know, step by step, all there is to know about the business of a KMO/PME. Here, your profound knowledge of accountancy, finance, VAT, corporate tax and corporate law will systematically increase.

Once complying general and analytical accounting, preparing annual accounts and income tax returns does not have any secrets for you, you will be enrolled in more advisory projects as an Accountant-Tax Consultant. Also more financial-strategic challenges will cross your path as drawing the right capital, guiding of take overs, putting up return analysis, guiding mergers and acquisitions or succession planning. Your role as a trusted business partner of business leaders and their financial teams are close at hand.

We serve our international clients from our Diegem office, though our small and medium businesses clients are served from our multidisciplinary and local offices.

We stimulate your professional growth with an extensive internal and external training programme, as the Junior milestone programme (30 days of training during your first year), the possibility of following the IAB-training, all this combined with extensive coaching-on-the-job, permanent support from our complementary teams and many client contacts.
