

Regulatory Newsflash Publication of the draft transposition act of the Insurance Distribution Directive

On October 4, 2018 the draft transposition act (ref. 54K3297) has finally been published and submitted to the Chamber of Representatives within the Parliament for vote.

The draft act published on the Chamber's website (link) includes quite some explanatory sections, including:

- A summary
- The explanatory memorandum
- The draft version voted by the Council of Ministers
- An impact analysis
- The advice of the State Council
- The final draft act ready for vote
- Matching tables

The entry into force of the draft act is set at 1 October, 2018 (art. 59) despite the delay. We understand that the vote of the Chamber is not scheduled before the third week of October.
