

COVID-19 is shifting organisations' approach to preparedness toward considering multiple and unlikely futures

Which statement best describes your organisation's preparedness prior to the COVID-19 pandemic?
Which statement best describes how your organisation will define preparedness moving forward?

Executives are shifting their focus from optimising work to reimagining work

How were you thinking about work transformation prior to the COVID-19 pandemic?
How are you thinking about work transformation in the next one to three years?

