Organisational changes within the Foreigners tax service

The tax administration for Foreign taxpayers was restructured with effect from 1 July 2016.

Going forward, all tax matters for non-resident taxpayers (personal tax, corporate tax and VAT) are managed centrally by the Foreigners tax services in Brussels.

Interestingly, the selection of files to be audited will be monitored centrally by the Foreigners tax service in Brussels, whereas the tax audits themselves remain decentralised and will be performed by dedicated local tax teams.

The following links (Dutch | French) can be accessed to find contact details of teams within the Foreigners tax services in Brussels dealing with various tax matters.
