

Global Mobile Consumer Survey 2013

Top 10 Belgian mobile consumer facts

Belgian respondents own or have access to an average of 4,7 portable devices

Tablet penetration more than doubled in 2013 (+150%), now reaching 30%

The most important influencers when buying a phone are:

The most important influencers when buying a tablet are:

Wi-Fi is by far the principal source of mobile connectivity for all portable devices in Belgium

51% of smartphone users connect to WiFi whilst on the go

Voice calls and text messages remain the principal communication channels on smartphones

Video calls and instant messages are the principal communication channels on tablets

The number of people who want their next phone to have 4G has gone up to 31% in 2013

One in five tablet users access a shared tablet through family and friends

Weekly online activities on tablet & smartphone

Willingness to pay

Global Mobile Consumer Survey, 2013
Belgian sample: 2000 interviewees
Field research took place between May and June 2013

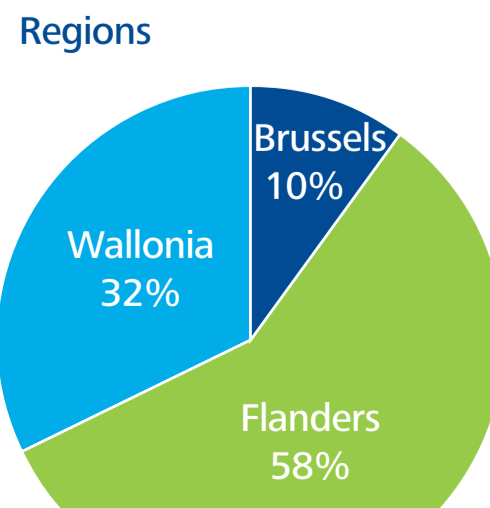

Gender of participants

Age of participants

Regions

For more information please go to www.deloitte.be

