Choosing where to start your career is one of the biggest decisions that you'll ever make. At Deloitte, we recognize that everyone is unique — and we offer many paths you can follow to suit your career aspirations. The professional services provide many areas of focus. Find out which one is right for you.

A career in professional services

Audit

If you're good with detail and as happy gathering data as you are teasing out what it all means, perhaps Audit is for you.

Working in Audit involves understanding all aspects of a business. State-of-the-art tools enable us to continue to deliver the assurance service excellence that is implicit in the Deloitte brand and which the financial community and public expect, as we serve the Financial Services and Public sectors.

Consulting

If you're confident, a natural communicator and keen to use your intelligence to influence all sorts of organizations, you should consider Consulting. You'll also need to be eager to go wherever your work takes you and not be put off by demanding projects or challenging deadlines. Deloitte consulting services clients from strategy to implementation and helps them solve their most complex business challenges, realize their greatest opportunities, and achieve meaningful, lasting results.

Enterprise Risk Services (ERS)

The focus of ERS is managing risk in a broad spectrum of areas — regulatory, contractual, financial, economic, and operational, from people and processes to technology and facilities. You would potentially be implementing internal audits, IT audit and cyber risk assessments.

Financial Advisory

If you can look at the business or financial pages and see the big picture, Financial Advisory could be your calling. You're comfortable with complexity and good at looking at problems from lots of different angles. You would be helping clients with restructuring, insolvency and valuation. You might also assess, measure, and minimize the impact of fraud on business. You could be handling M&A transactions, disputes, reorganizations, liquidation, and other related challenges.

Tax

If you're interested in combining insight and innovation from multiple disciplines with business and industry knowledge, Tax services could well be the answer for you.

Your work here would be about helping your clients manage their affairs, through offering practical advice and managing compliance across a broad range of tax matters. Our team supports companies in the areas of corporate and international tax, and individual tax. We provide tax advice in specialist fields such as transfer pricing, mergers and acquisitions, tax planning and the tax situations of financial services institutions.

Building a career that matters

We are committed to growing the world's best. We offer student and graduate opportunities annually across all service lines, and applications are encouraged from students of all academic disciplines, including accounting, business, law, economics, finance, math and others. Which accounting professional qualification is right for you?

Association of Chartered Certified Accountants

About the Association of Chartered Certified Accountants

- ACCA exams are divided into two levels: Fundamentals and Professional. The Fundamentals level is divided into two modules: Knowledge and Skills. The Professional level is divided into two modules: Essentials and Options. Both of the modules at Professional level have been set at the same ability level as a Master's degree. All students have to pass the three papers in the Essentials module. The Options module contains four papers, but you only need to complete two.
- If you already have a degree or qualification, you may not have to take all of the exams in the ACCA Qualification. These exemptions mean that you will start your studies at the right level for your knowledge and skill.
- Students pursuing the ACCA can study full-time or part-time around their work. There are options for self-study or to study with a tuition provider.

Students must successfully complete all exams at the Fundamentals and Professional levels; complete the online Ethics Module and have 3 years' relevant experience in an accounting or finance related role to qualify for ACCA membership.

What you need to enroll in the ACCA

- A university degree is preferred as it enables a fast track route through the award of exemptions. However, other entry requirements include: Diploma in Accounting and Business (via or Foundation in Accountancy program) OR 3 CXC passes and 6 CAPE units.

Chartered Professional Accountants of Canada

About the Chartered Professional Accountant (CPA) designation

- The professional program consists of two core module exams with workshops, focusing on financial and management accounting, and two electives chosen from either tax, finance, assurance and performance management. This culminates in a final exam.
- This is the only program where you are able to develop leadership, critical thinking and presentation skills by working through a business case with a group of students across Canada.
- Prerequisite courses are provided for those that have not taken accounting degrees in university or those who have degrees from other countries.
- Exams questions vary between multiple choice and case study questions.
- A structured program is offered with weekly assignments to guide your studying and preparation for the exams.
- Exams can be completed within one to two years.

What you need to enroll in the Canadian CPA

- You need to obtain a university degree to be eligible, preferably with a concentration in business or accounting as this will shorten the path to becoming a CPA (reduces the number of pre-requisites required).
- If you have studied accounting in Canada, it would be in your best interest to join the CPA Canada program as most accounting degrees coming out of Canadian universities cover all of the prerequisites.

“Where you take your career depends on where you start. I began my career as an intern and transferred as an associate to Milan, Italy before returning to Bermuda and progressing to CEO.”

John Johnston, CEO, Deloitte Caribbean and Bermuda Countries

“The opportunity provided by Deloitte’s Summer Internship Program is an excellent stepping stone towards a successful accounting career. It gives students a taste of what it feels like to be working in the accounting industry and allows you to meet professionals who can give you much needed advice. Additionally, the Summer Internship helped me to put my theoretical knowledge into practice and it allows me currently to envision real life scenarios when doing subjects related to the field.”

Asha Edwards, (2015 Intern)

“The Deloitte Internship Program was incredible! It was my first time gaining experience in my career choice. I was able to put acquired theoretical knowledge into practice, as the staff all chime in to create a wonderful, propelling learning environment to assist in developing my professional skills.”

Shaneka Greene, (2015 Intern)

“Participating in the Deloitte Summer Internship program provided me the opportunity to obtain hands-on practical experience where I was embraced as a member of the engagement teams and the Deloitte family. This made for a smooth transition from student to full time employee.”

Nia Green, Audit Associate (2012 and 2013 Intern)

“Deloitte Summer Internship was truly a positive experience for me. It provided me with a means of practical guidance, and educated me greatly in the lines of accounting. The hands-on help which I received from those I came into contact with during my internship was another positive, as it boosted my confidence and encouraged me to keep moving forward rather than becoming timid and having second thoughts in relation to a career in auditing. I would say hands down, that the warm atmosphere, and respect shown to each staff member, something that is not always seen in some institutions, played a major role in my development and understanding of accounting.”

Romario Collymore, (2015 Intern)
