How to participate

Who can apply?

Large companies, holdings, capital groups, SMEs, foundations, universities.

The jury may decide to remove reports from the evaluation list submitted by companies towards which public allegations on violating business conducts have been proven.

Which reports can be submitted?

Last available social reports, CSR reports, sustainability reports, integrated reports covering 2017 or more years (e.g. 2016-2017).

The report should cover at least one of the CEE territories and be dedicated to local market(s) use. The jury will not evaluate global reports or selection of good practices submitted for the local GFA review, which are not translated into English.

Reports that focus only on 1 sustainability-related issue will not be accepted, i.e. environmental reports, foundation's reports, etc.

Language of the reports:

- National level – companies can submit the reports in their local language or in English
- Regional level – reports will be evaluated by an international jury, therefore preselected companies at the national level will be asked for an English version of their report if they have originally submitted the document in another language

Which guidelines should the reports follow?

GRI G4, GRI Standard, IIRC, UN Global Compact, ISO 26000, EU Directive 2014/95/EU on disclosure of non-financial and diversity information by certain large undertakings and groups.
