

CRS and FATCA online courses

Greater awareness, leading to greater compliance

Deloitte in Switzerland and VisionCompliance are partnering to provide two online courses tailored to relationship managers' needs. This unique cooperation combines the technology and knowledge transfer competencies of VisionCompliance with the tax technical expertise of Deloitte professionals to help banks understand and address implications related to compliance with CRS and FATCA regulations.

Smart training is not about "ticking the training box", it is about adding value, increasing efficiency and reducing risk by tailoring it to the audience. Our CRS and FATCA online courses are designed to capture the elements of these regulatory regimes, which have an impact on relationship managers' activities and make up two key building blocks of their regulatory curriculum.

In a nutshell, the objective of these courses is to provide an overview of:

- the CRS and FATCA regimes in general
- the mechanism and principles to classify individual and entity accounts
- the documentation requirements for pre-existing and new accounts
- the ongoing account monitoring obligations.
