About Deloitte

Deloitte member firms form a network that covers more than 150 countries, with around 245,000 Deloitte professionals working together to serve our clients, people and society. The aggregate Deloitte revenues in the 2016 fiscal year were US$36.8 billion, reflecting a remarkable year-on-year growth of 9.5%. As the first foreign accounting firm set up a branch office in Shanghai in 1917, Deloitte has had a presence in China for over a hundred years. Currently, Deloitte's China network comprises over 13,000 professionals with offices in Beijing, Changsha, Chengdu, Chongqing, Dalian, Guangzhou, Hangzhou, Harbin, Hefei, Hong Kong, Jinan, Macao, Nanjing, Shanghai, Shenyang, Shenzhen, Suzhou, Tianjin, Ulaanbaatar, Wuhan, and Xiamen.

Deloitte China offers high quality professional services in the areas of audit & assurance, consulting, financial advisory, risk advisory, and tax & legal to help clients from various industries respond to complex business challenges. Deloitte has a wealth of experience in professional services in the Chinese market. Having gone through and participated in the economic transformation of China, the firm has made important contributions to the development of China's accounting standards and tax system, as well as to the cultivation of local professional accountants and tax professionals. Along with the continuous growth of our business, we keep investing knowledge, skills, and resources into areas in China where they are most needed, and contributing more to the development of local communities.

"As we dedicate ourselves to corporate responsibility (CR), we have set up the Deloitte Foundation with four major focuses including education, health care, environment and disaster relief, to provide support to those in need and contribute to the development of society. We are well-prepared to lead Deloitte's journey into the next century in China, and will continue to make a difference to the social and economic growth in China!"

Patrick Tsang
Chief Executive Officer
Deloitte China

The publication of this Report coincides with Deloitte's centenary celebration in China. We will continue to serve our clients and the Chinese market in line with our commitment to "making an impact that matters—doing what matters most for clients, people and society".

About Deloitte Foundation

In June 2015, Deloitte Foundation was formally established in Chongqing and Hong Kong as a centralized platform to manage charitable donations, as well as to consolidate and promote Deloitte China's current and future CR programs. Focusing on education, health care, environment, and disaster relief, Deloitte Foundation is committed to making a clear and significant impact to local communities.

The purpose of Deloitte Foundation, "making an impact that matters for society", is aligned with our global Purpose: "Making an impact that matters—doing what matters most for clients, people, and society". This is the cornerstone of our efforts and continuous commitment in fulfilling our corporate responsibility.

Our governance structure

Deloitte Foundation has set up an independent Board of Directors comprised of current Deloitte China partners, retired partners, and third-party individuals. The board assumes corporate governance roles and is responsible for developing and supervising policies for the important matters of Deloitte Foundation, as well as ensuring the independence and transparency of the Foundation's operations. From strategic planning to project execution, the Foundation's management maintains close working relationship with its board members.

To know more about the board's composition, please refer to "Appendix – Composition of Deloitte Foundation's Board of Directors".

Make an impact that matters for society

Our 2020 aspirations

To support Deloitte China in organizing and developing its corporate responsibility, Deloitte Foundation has laid down our "2020 aspirations". We strive to be the undisputed leader through scaling social innovation in China, which include:

- Be the top-rated corporate foundation with impactful, sustainable, and scalable CR programs in China.
- Leverage our business capabilities (i.e. assets and expertise) to improve and enhance strategic planning, operational efficiency, and management ability of social enterprises and NGOs.
- Provide opportunities to our talents with rewarding volunteering experiences and complement their professional skills and development.

Message from the Secretary-General of Deloitte Foundation

Deloitte is committed to corporate responsibility (CR) – a value that matters to all of us in Deloitte. Our societal impact investment each year amounts to several hundred million US dollars, and our talents clock over a million hours in the participation of CR programs globally. In the last decade, Deloitte China launched a number of programs, including the ones which improved the teaching environment in schools; provided mentoring to students as well as offered education opportunities to the children who lived in remote areas in the Chinese Mainland and Hong Kong. To date, over 3,000 less resourceful students have benefited from our programs.

Deloitte Foundation, established in 2015 in Chongqing and Hong Kong, signifies Deloitte China's long-term commitment to corporate responsibility. In the past two years, we have been building "One distinguished brand - Deloitte Foundation", through "Two established platforms" in Hong Kong and Chongqing respectively, which strive towards our "Three 2020 aspirations" by developing signature programs and providing our people with diverse volunteering opportunities that relate to our "Four CR focuses"; namely education, health care, environment, and disaster relief. Meanwhile, in response to the United Nations' 2030 Sustainable Development Goals for a sustainable future, our signature programs, including Deloitte "Pass the Torch" Student Mentoring Program, Deloitte Children Care Program, and Deloitte Mobile Health Services Program aim to achieve the UN Sustainable Development Goals under "quality education" and "good health and well-being". Deloitte Foundation, together with our collaborative partners, will continue to explore ways to scale up social innovation and tackle the major challenges that our society faces.

As the Secretary General of Deloitte Foundation, I am very honored to share with you Deloitte Foundation's first published Report, which records every step the Foundation has undertaken since its establishment up to the end of 2016. Every step we taken encourages us to keep on promoting our society's progress and development. I look forward to "making an impact that matters for society" by working with more like-minded corporates, charitable organizations and individuals in the near future.

Kevin Ng
Secretary-General
Deloitte Foundation

Deloitte people work together for charitable causes

Talent is the most precious asset of Deloitte. We believe every Deloitte talent has unique abilities to achieve great things and to rise and shine in different fields. Thus, Deloitte pays high regards to each and every employee's personal values as well as their contributions to society. Our unique corporate culture not only enhances the working experience of our people but also helps unleash their talents and potential, develop their careers, and contribute to our community.

Through Deloitte Foundation, our people have abundant opportunities to contribute towards social causes and participate in volunteering activities, thereby gaining meaningful experiences. Whether participating in signature programs like Deloitte "Pass the Torch" Student Mentoring Program,

Deloitte Children Care Program, and Deloitte Mobile Health Services Program, or other charitable activities like Deloitte Foundation's Commitment Cards campaign, Charity Run-up, Charity Fair, Green Giving Day donation campaign, National IMPACT Day activities, etc., our talents are keen participants and contributors. With such strong support and trust, Deloitte Foundation shall definitely continue to grow and blossom.

The Foundation also has 14 "Deloitte Corporate Responsibility Champions" who come from various offices and business functions within Deloitte China and help connecting the Foundation with our people through organizing volunteering activities across the offices or regions, and encouraging them to participate in the community activities to make an impact for society.

Together with numerous non-governmental organizations, government bodies, and corporate partners, Deloitte Foundation initiates projects that leverage our professional skills and capabilities. We also provide pro bono professional services to charitable organizations and social enterprises to comply with the statutory reporting requirements or to make bigger impact from the execution of their charitable projects. For more details about the activities, projects and pro bono services, please refer to the appendices.

Societal impact assessment

All CR programs must firstly be evaluated using Deloitte China Community Investment Scorecard, which is designed based on the globally recognized "London Benchmarking Group model" and aligns with our focused areas of Deloitte Foundation. It also assesses the potential impacts arising from the programs against the original objectives or goals.

While Deloitte treasures active participation of our talents in charitable activities, with the collaboration with NGO, we also closely monitor the status of our CR programs through regular communications and on-site visits, and assess the societal impact of the programs using Social Return on Investment tools.

An overview of Deloitte Foundation

Making an impact that matters for society

Launching ceremony for Deloitte Foundation

On 19 November 2015, Deloitte Foundation held its launching ceremony, which was attended by many guests-of-honor, including Mr. Li Hongyi, District Head of Fuling District, Chongqing Municipality; Mr. Liu Kangzhong, Deputy District Head of Fuling District; Mr. Lu Yong, Deputy District Head of Yuzhong District; and Ms. Liu Yunqiu, Head of Chongqing NGO Administration Bureau, who were accompanied by Mr. Lawrence Chia, the then CEO of Deloitte China and Mr. Mark Robinson, Chief Operating Officer.

On behalf of the local authorities, Ms. Liu Yunqiu expressed her appreciation of the establishment of Deloitte Foundation in Chongqing and her support for Deloitte Foundation as well as her high hopes for its development in China. Mr. Chia pointed out that the establishment of Deloitte Foundation was an important step for Deloitte to give back to the community. Through better coordination and management, resources would be centralized to create greater societal impact. At the same time, Deloitte Foundation could become the platform to connect with Deloitte's global and clients to contribute to societal needs.

At the launching ceremony, Deloitte Foundation and the Fuling District Civil Affairs Bureau inked a strategic partnership agreement for the pilot run of "Deloitte Mobile Health Services Program" in Chongqing.

Blaze and ignite young people's minds

Deloitte "Pass the Torch" Student Mentoring Program

Young people are the pillars of our future. With regards to youth development, Deloitte helps them overcome the challenges lying along their pathway.

Launched in 2009, Deloitte "Pass the Torch" Student Mentoring Program is jointly run by Deloitte and two Hong Kong institutions—Buddhist Mau Fung Memorial College and ELCHK Youth Career Development Service. Targeting secondary school students in Hong Kong's remote communities, the program provides students with mentoring and extra-curricular learning opportunities.

Deloitte mentors pair up with students from Form 4 to Form 6 with a view to inculcating virtue and values of life and teaching them necessary skills such as interpersonal skills, teamwork, leadership, and social responsibility. The program also helps young people develop their confidence and set goals for their future. We hope to inspire and encourage the students to become optimistic and ambitious in their academic and career pursuits. To date, more than 250 secondary school students have benefited from this program.

The program is also highly recognized by the Hong Kong SAR Government and integrated as part of the "Life Buddies Mentoring Program" hosted by the SAR Government. In the school year of 2016, in light of the continuous passion and care, Deloitte "Pass the Torch" Student Mentoring Program has been expanded to cover another school: CCC Mong Man Wai College. We remain confident that this program will continue to light up the lives of more students.

A click to support charitable work

Charitable 8 hours + Deloitte's charity in action platform

In Deloitte China, every employee is entitled to "Charitable 8 hours", where they can use 8 working hours to participate in volunteering work. To allow our talents fully utilize the volunteering hours, "Deloitte's charity in action platform" has been officially launched online in August 2016. Talents can use the platform to pick and choose the community activities organized by Deloitte Foundation. Besides, they can also make donations through the platform, which will be used to fund the Deloitte's CR programs and the firm will match the staff donations on an 1:1 basis.

Bringing medical care to village

Deloitte Mobile Health Services Program

This signature program aims to bring health services to the doorsteps of residence in rural villages. Deloitte Foundation provides motor vehicle equipped with the necessary medical equipment for health checks to local hospital, where the latter will visit the local residents in rural villages on a regular basis to provide free health inspections to improve their health conditions as well as to raise their awareness in personal hygiene. The medical data about the health conditions of the local residents will be analyzed for the local government authorities for the purpose to formulate their health care policies.

On 18 May 2016, the pilot program was launched in Fuling District in Chongqing Municipality, one of the hinterlands of the Three Gorges. Deloitte Foundation collaborated with the Fuling District Civil Affairs Bureau and the Fuling District Youfu Hospital to start regular mobile health services for the less resourceful elderly community in poverty-stricken villages and towns in Fuling District. We provided free medical checking as well as medication and psychological care to the local residents. Deloitte volunteers from Chongqing office also joined the service trips to provide the care and support. Over 600 residents from eight villages and towns in Fuling District benefited from this pilot program.

10 September

Participation in "HK+Acumen 2016 Social Impact Investment Forum"

Deloitte Foundation sponsored the venue, where participants from reputable charitable institutions discussed how to strike a balance in the development of Environment, Society, and Governance (ESG).

Together, let's create further impacts for our society

Deloitte China Charity Fair 2016

Deloitte announced its global brand refresh in June 2016 and launched the new brand identity in September of the same year. After the brand refresh, all Deloitte premium items were replaced. To avoid any waste of resources, Deloitte Foundation and Deloitte China's Brand & Communications co-organized a charity fair across eight offices in China on 14 September and sold more than 10,000 items to our colleagues. The fair not only helped to protect our environment but also allowed our colleagues to collect memorial items for their career with Deloitte. Most importantly, sales proceeds collected from the fair was used to support Deloitte Foundation's programs and activities.

Igniting our passion, skills, and determination for our society

National IMPACT Day

National IMPACT Day, first launched in 2000, is a global volunteering activity of Deloitte organized across member firms.

National IMPACT Day for financial year 2017 was held in three rounds in order to allow colleagues from different offices to participate in volunteering activities based on their own interest and availability. Offices including Beijing, Chongqing, Guangzhou, Hong Kong, Nanjing, Shanghai and Tianjin organized 19 activities between September and November 2016 with overwhelming participation of over 600 colleagues. In total, they clocked in aggregate of over 1,800 volunteering hours which included visits to schools for children from "migrant families"; reading classes for elementary students; interaction with visual and hearing impaired/mentally disabled individuals; preparation of meals for the needy; visits to hospitals as well as financial management seminar for patients' families.

Enabling healthy growth and development of left-behind children Deloitte Children Care Program

From 2009 to 2014, Deloitte China and Hubei Hope Project jointly built five Deloitte Hope Elementary Schools in the poverty-stricken areas of Hubei. Apart from improving their learning conditions, Deloitte is always keen to support children living in remote locations to lead a better future. In October 2016, Deloitte Children Care Program reunited our people and children. Thirty colleagues from Shanghai office volunteered as the first batch of mentors to look after fifteen left-behind children of the Deloitte Hope Elementary School in Tongshan County in Hubei Xianning City. By means of the internet-aided platform, our mentors could interact with the children for 15-30 minutes every week over a 3-year period. At the start of the program, volunteer representatives paid a home visit to Tongshan County to meet with the children and their families. A fun fair was also held in their school to foster the relationship between our volunteers and the children.

Under the program, the children were gradually warmed up and willing to share their stories with our mentors, and were also curious about the background and life experiences of their mentors. Through these ongoing interactions and communications, we have seen a lot of cheers and laughters.

4 November

Award ceremony for Deloitte Scholarship 2016

It is the 11th year Deloitte provided scholarship to Shanghai Jiulong Mofan Middle School to support students from less resourceful families who are determined to pursue their tertiary studies in accounting and taxation.

18 November

Oxfam Trailwalker to alleviate poverty

The Deloitte Trailwalker team took part in the Trailwalker run again in 2016 to raise funds for Oxfam's poverty alleviation and disaster relief work. The funds would be directed to help the poor for improving their living standards and encouraging them to be more self-sustained.

November - February

Green Giving Day 2017

This is the 10th year of Deloitte China's Green Giving Day donation campaign, which aims to encourage colleagues to donate their unused but usable items to those who are in need. By leading a simple and green lifestyle, we could have our fair share in protecting the environment as well as helping others in our community.

Deloitte Foundation aspiration in 2017

In 2017, Deloitte Foundation will continue to nurture and develop our signature programs under the four CR focuses (i.e. education, health care, environment and disaster relief). At the same time, we will also explore our role in scaling social innovation. With the promulgation of China's Charity Law on 1 September 2016, this brings new regulatory requirements for carrying out charitable deeds in China. In this connection, we will make use of our professional knowledge and skills to study its impacts and share with like-minded organizations or corporates in the community. As always, Deloitte hopes to provide the necessary professional skills and services for charitable organizations to enhance their operations and to realize more values in their respective philanthropic pursuits. Deloitte Foundation is committed to working with collaborative partners in China to better our community.

Deloitte Foundation strategic targets include:

-  Promote Deloitte's global strategy in scaling social innovation to support local charitable organizations and social enterprises in meeting complex social challenges
-  Strengthen the Foundation's brand eminence and communication channels, and ensure the openness and transparency in information and operations
-  Create scalable and sustainable signature CR programs to meet social needs in an effective and efficient manner
-  Create unique community service experience and encourage our talents to participate and develop through diverse donation and volunteering platforms
-  Develop a cooperative network with individuals NGOs, governments, and corporate partners to implement impactful programs.

2017 also marks the centenary of Deloitte in China. As the top-notch professional services firm of the world, we will strive to make impacts for our clients, people, and society with our "High-Value, High-Tech, and High-Touch approach" including making more contributions to philanthropy in China. Therefore, we need the relentless support and participation of every Deloitte talent and the like-minded stakeholders in order to maximize the positive energy in "making an impact that matters for society"!
