

EU Grants for Research, Innovation and Education

Your challenge – What are typical situations in which you may require our assistance?

- The EU Funding system is somehow complex and therefore requires specific knowledge, experience and skills to submit the appropriate applications under the various EU Funding Programmes.
- If you are looking for accurate and up to date information on EU Funding Programmes, we can supply all the information, strand or action that is necessary for the programme that best meets your interests.
- EU offers a wide range of funding programmes covering different areas. If you are uncertain which one is the most appropriate for your needs, we can help you in identifying it and evaluate whether those programs are a “not-to-miss” opportunity for you.
- If you are looking for funding opportunities in specific policy sectors, we can assist you with:
  - developing the project idea;
  - forming a solid partnership for the purposes of the specific project;
  - undertaking the preparation of the proposal dossier; and
  - assisting you with assigning successful project managers to handle your project during its entire lifespan.

We can help you with your grant applications every step of the way

What are the benefits of our approach?

- We always aim to satisfy our clients’ funding expectations by adopting a custom-made approach and looking through all possible scenarios and available funding sources.
- We have the tools and practical experience to enable you to manage your project in an efficient manner.
- We have a network of collaborators from both the public and the private sector across different fields, which gives us the ability to form solid partnerships in accordance with the programme’s guidelines.
- We have a dedicated team of experienced consultants, who are able to respond and handle your request timely and efficiently and work with you as a team to fully explore the potential benefits available through EU Programmes.
- We work closely with practitioners from other Deloitte service lines with specific knowledge and technical insights.
- We are able to fully utilise the Deloitte network in order to benefit from Deloitte’s vast experience with EU matters, across all EU Member States.

The EU provides funding in the form of grants for a vast range of projects and programmes. Be there to capture the right opportunities at the right time.

Our solutions - What can we offer?

- We provide information dissemination and notification services to interested parties with respect to funding opportunities from EU programmes on a frequent or an ad hoc basis according to the clients’ requests.
- We provide solutions and advice with regard to the initial evaluation of the project, the identification of the most promising ideas, and finally matching them with the European Funding Programmes.
- We undertake partner search on behalf of our clients who are interested to submit a proposal for a project funded by the EU with the aim to ensure that a solid partnership will be established and we manage all the communication with potential / associated partners thereafter.
- We notify our clients of opportunities arising from organisations expressing an interest to involve Cypriot partners in a project funded by the EU and inform them also about the programme particularities and financial and other applicable rules / regulations.
- We prepare proposals dossiers for projects requesting EU funding by collecting all the necessary documentation and information, developing the proposal structure, completing the application forms, preparing the budget and submitting the final proposal to the relevant authority.
- For the successful EU funded projects we offer project management services and support to the Cypriot partners, so that the project is kept on the right track.
