

Deloitte Japanese Desk / ジャパンデスク

“For many years Japanese companies have been investing in the Czech Republic, especially in the automotive industry.”

There are a number of factors that make Deloitte a suitable partner for Japanese investors: quality of work, competitive fee levels, expertise, communication and our professional reputation are just some of them.

We can offer to Japanese companies customised advice in the areas of audit, consulting, financial advisory, enterprise risk services, tax services, immigration and legal services in the manner of a one-stop shop.

A global network of Deloitte member firms and partnering law firms positioned in over 140 countries with 150,000 experts worldwide are also at the disposal of our Japanese clients.

Our dedicated teams offer local knowledge of Czech legislation and the local business environment, combined with the international expertise of expatriates and the extensive experience of serving Japanese companies.

”日系企業への豊富な経験と確かな理解を活かし、皆様にご満足いただけるサービスを提供します“

Japanese Desk / ジャパンデスク

Our relationship with Japanese companies goes back to the 1990s, when, after the Velvet revolution, Japanese companies began to invest in the Czech Republic. The Japanese desk at Deloitte was established in 2001. Since that time, our portfolio of Japanese clients has increased substantially and continues to grow year-on-year. Our Japanese Desk is made up of professionals specialising in serving Japanese clients and by Japanese nationals operating both as coordinators and advisors.

デロイトと日系企業の皆様との関係の始まりは、1989年のビロード革命後、日系企業によってチェコ共和国への投資が始まった時代に遡ります。ジャパンデスクが設置された2001年以後、デロイトが協力した日系企業の数には毎年継続して増加しており、その状況は今も変わりません。デロイトにおけるジャパンデスクは、日系企業への専門チームとして位置づけられており、日本語でのコーディネーションとアドバイスを提供しています。

“We work proactively with the authorities on topics affecting the investment environment for Japanese companies in the Czech Republic, organising seminars for Japanese clients and co-operating closely with Japanese governmental institutions.”
