

Labour Law & Benefits Czech Republic

Our Legal Services

Remuneration & Benefits

We can help you set up a remuneration system for your employees, taking into account any industry-specific regulatory requirements. We will advise you on the introduction of selected company benefits for employees tailored to the needs of your company.

Executive directors & Regional roles

We propose consultancy on the legal status of the top management members and the risks associated with the concurrence of the function of a statutory body with an employment relationship and the performance of work for other entities within the Group.

Work from home / Remote work

We will provide you with legal and tax advice when introducing the option to work remotely from the Czech Republic or abroad. We will set up a suitable system for providing compensation to employees in your company.

Posting of workers / PWD

We will advise you on how to comply with the legal regulations when posting Czech employees abroad and foreign employees to the Czech Republic. In cooperation with other Deloitte entities, we will cover the agenda from the perspective of Czech and foreign legislation.

Digital HR

We will advise you on the implementation of new internal HR systems and processes based on a paperless approach while taking into account the legal and security requirements for the selected method of signing, delivery and archiving.
