

Key value adding benefits by applying human centric reporting

Increased acceptance of the report

Ensure visibility of key numbers and messages in graphs and tables

Ensure effective delivery of key messages within a report and guide user's attention towards key information

Increased efficiency in daily operations by improved navigation and clear information layout and density

Reduced risk for wrong business decisions as well as improved support for decision makers