

Deloitte Financial Advisory Services or Deloitte FAS is a special force within Deloitte. We are called in to advise clients on managing business controversy and disputes, executing deals and maintaining regulatory compliance. We deliver comprehensive and tailored financial solutions across a range of industries.

Position: Experienced Transaction Advisory Professional

Department: Financial Advisory Services

Location: Tallinn

Key tasks:

- Execute M&A transactions and related corporate finance engagements by supporting corporations and private equity investors in financial due diligence, business valuations, financial advisory and related transaction support services
- Work closely with local and international colleagues from different service lines as well as external other professional advisors
- Lead data analysis and report preparation processes with support of junior colleagues
- Provide input into preparation of high quality of report and deliverables
- Identify deal issues and provide suggestions for solutions
- Prioritize and quantify key risk factors, assist project leadership
- Perform risk management procedures including scoping, drafting engagement letters and project budgeting
- Assist partners and managers in developing local and international business opportunities by preparing pitching and proposal materials

Required skills and experience:

- Business related university degree (BA or MBA in finance, accounting, economics, management or law)
- 3-5 years of related experience within a professional services firm or relevant industry experience
- Good business sense and ability to identify key elements and issues in the transaction
- Analytical and critical thinking, excellent communication and interpersonal skills
- Ambitious and self-driven
- Strong knowledge of and experience using Excel and Powerpoint
- Proficiency in Estonian and English, Russian is an advantage
- CFA, CF, ACCA certification would be an advantage

We offer

- Market leading M&A team and opportunity to contribute to the largest transactions in the Baltics
- Challenging environment where personal development and growth are encouraged
- Competitive remuneration

If you are a desirous candidate, please send your CV and cover letter in English under FAS consultant to eessti@deloittece.com. If you have any questions, please contact the head of our FAS department Monika Kallas mkallas@deloittece.com