

AUGUST 13TH 18:00 - 21:30 AT SOKOS HOTELS TALLINN

You are invited to take part in Sisters in Charge networking event

*Be inspired by great speakers, wine degustation, delicious food and of course pleasant company of successful women!
You are also able to visit the first and only story hotel in Estonia – Solo Sokos Hotel Estoria.*

Ticket €15/person

To attend, please contact ariina@fotoabi.ee by July 31st

WELCOME SPEECH

Annamari Lammasaari, president of Brand Balance LTD

Annamari will speak about how Sisters in Charge, women's organisation focusing on enhancing access to networks, experience and markets, can help women to use their full potential and help societies be more prosperous. She has over 20 years experience in international communications and branding and has held various senior positions at multi-national companies, responsible for both B2C and B2B communication. Annamari has lectured at London Business School, Helsinki School of Business, Design University TAIK etc.

RISKS IN ENTREPRENEURSHIP

Merit Lind, head of Law Firm Deloitte Legal

Attorney-at-Law Merit Lind deals with financing, commercial and business law issues, especially in the information technology sector, including with matters of intellectual property. Further, Merit has gained wide experience in the fields of public procurement and competition law as well as in public and private sector collaboration and infrastructure projects. She also consults the so-called „new businesses“, such as crowdfunding platforms and clients offering alternative payment solutions, etc.

HOW TO HANDLE A CROSSROADS IN YOUR CAREER

Eela Velström, founder of Velström Vallner Tohver

Eela has been active in the HR-field since the middle of 1990-s. She has worked for several big organisations in private and governmental sector. Eela takes care of all staff related matters, and is responsible for achieving warm smiles and high performance from your organization / operation. The significant challenge for every person is to find job by his own desire. Eela is an expert in analyzing personal responsibilities and task assignments to assure the highest efficiency and productivity.

