Japanese Services Group in France

We are a group of dedicated specialists serving Japanese companies specifically for audit and related services, consulting, corporate finance, tax and legal

On a worldwide basis, the Japanese Services Group (JSG) was established in 1975 by Tohmatsu, Japan, in order to manage communications effectively across diverse cultures, languages, and geographic boundaries.

JSG in France is part of this practice group dedicated to Japanese companies in more than 50 countries.

We have been a key business partner for Japanese companies operating all over France.

Our mission is to support operations and meet Japanese companies' needs by offering our experience and knowledge in many critical areas such as financial audit, accounting, M&A transactions, business consulting, tax & legal and advisory.

Our team

Our team is managed by partner and manager who are dedicated to organizing engagements with other specialists. All our firm specialists have high quality educational backgrounds and maintain sufficient knowledge in each specialized area.

We are all bilingual in French and English, and some are Japanese speakers.

Your benefit

Our services are adapted on an individual basis with careful consideration given for Japanese culture and customs.

JSG in France offers you a 'one-stop-service' with our well established network in various service lines.

Indeed, quality is assured by one of the largest networks in the world.

We are in close contact with our central team in Tohmatsu, Japan, and with all JSG members all around the world.
