The digital workforce is already underway as organizations are:
- Adopting advanced technologies that accelerate decision-making and eliminate routine administrative tasks.
- Upskilling health system employees to adopt and use technologies.
- Reviewing employees’ readiness for a digital future.

It’s trending – Future of work is top-of-mind for health system leaders, many of whom are using improved working conditions, alternative employment models, and innovative technologies to anchor cost-effective, next-generation talent models.

78% of physicians sometimes, often, or always experience feelings of burnout.
46% of physicians plan to change career paths and, 12% want to find a job where they don’t have to deal with patients.

Staffing challenges in health care:
- Inability to close the demand-supply gap
- Excessive time being spent on documentation
- Inability to stay “current”
- Lack of well-being
