

Dispute advisory Moving forward

Our clients and their legal advisers know that a successful outcome to a dispute will require forensic accountants with experience, industry and sector knowledge, and a commercial approach to problem solving.

At Deloitte we offer practical advice throughout the dispute process. Our aim is to always reach the desired outcome as quickly and efficiently as possible.

We produce robust and authoritative expert reports which stand up to scrutiny and cross examination, and our experts are experienced in giving evidence in support of these reports.

Our experience includes:

- Providing expert witness testimony in formal civil and criminal proceedings
- Giving litigation support advice to clients throughout the legal process
- Acting as independently appointed experts to help resolve issues
- Helping resolve disputes arising from corporate transactions and valuation disputes
- Supporting clients through arbitration and other forms of alternative dispute resolution.
- Advising on insurance claims and helping compile the evidence to support claims for loss

Our team has worked on cases across a variety of industries. These Include:

Expert evidence

We provided expert accountancy evidence on the losses suffered by a food and beverage company as a result of the termination of a long standing exclusive distribution agreement.

Valuations

We provided valuation evidence to help our client resolve a shareholder dispute involving a major international telecoms venture.

Litigation support

Our client faced a counter claim which they believed was without merit. Our assistance in drafting discovery requests helped expose the lack of evidence for the counter claim, and led the other party to initiate settlement talks.

Arbitration

We provided assistance to a client facing a significant breach of contract claim from a contractor on a major infrastructure project which was subject to arbitration.

Expert determinations

We acted as independent experts to determine the value of items in a completion accounts dispute following the sale of a high tech manufacturing company.

Insurance

We have helped a variety of companies calculate the level of insured loss as a result of fire and flood claims.

Our experience in all forms of disputes and our deep industry expertise means that we can help you reach an efficient and effective solution.
