

Public Sector
Enabling evolution and change

About us

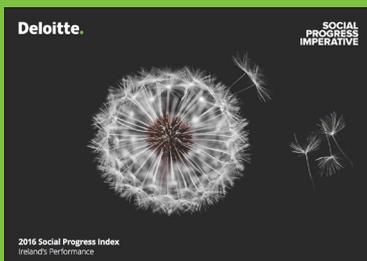

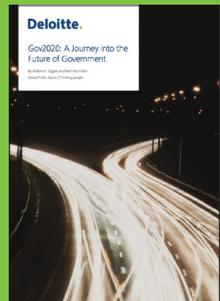

Deloitte is a leading provider of professional services to the Public Sector in Ireland and globally. We are recognised as being able to support Government with the most complex issues, through our advisory and implementation capability. We demonstrate our contribution to Government as a stakeholder through relevant thought leadership and eminence, and a contribution to economic and social development.

“We help deliver change and transformation within the Public Sector, from strategy definition through to execution.”

Our points of view

The Public Sector faces a wide range of challenges and opportunities each day. Deloitte produces a variety of thought leadership, insight and other materials to help keep you informed on the issues that affect you most.

Our global network

At Deloitte we provide consulting, financial advisory, tax and audit services to central and local government, government agencies and not for profit organisations. We work with clients in diverse sectors, including health, social services, education, justice and policing, defence and transport. We think about the complex issues facing the public sector and develop relevant, timely, and sustainable solutions for our clients.

The Public Sector is evolving

Based on decades of engagement and a proven track record we understand the Irish Public Sector, and its objectives, whether that is citizen focused priorities, new structural and digital models of services delivery, driving efficiency and effectiveness, new ways of working, or people leadership and engagement. We understand central and local government sector specific issues.

We help our clients across the public sector solve their most difficult challenges utilising deep local advisory and implementation capability, and the experience of the largest global professional services organisation.

Public Sector Challenges

Demographic

Low fertility rates and aging populations are changing the shape of the workforce and placing pressure on public spending.

Workforce

Governments must equip their workforce with the skills to adapt to fast-paced technological change and to support competitiveness.

Technology

Digital provides Government with new opportunities to modernise and save costs. Increased connectivity drives citizen expectations and provides new means to hold Government to account.

Security

Justice and security organisations must address public concerns over cyber risk, privacy and geopolitical tensions.

Economic

Most advanced economies show limited prospects for growth. Government must do more with less.

To keep pace with the needs of its citizens, governments are evolving in unprecedented ways. They are deviating from tradition and creating an environment where innovators thrive and technology-equipped citizens can serve themselves.

Our capabilities and services

We enable organisations across the Public Sector to fulfil their objectives by providing a broad range of integrated services that are aligned to the needs of the organisation and the sector it operates in.
