

Immigration services

Background

The Deloitte network is one of the oldest and hence one of the most experienced immigration providers across the globe. Deloitte provide immigration services to public and private clients spanning multiple industries, as well as high-net-worth private individuals, and this enables us to draw from our experience for the benefit of all of our clients. Together, services provided by the Deloitte network's member firms cover over 130 countries and comprise over 1,100 professionals.

Principal services

The ever-changing immigration rules mean that understanding the long-term objective for the individual and the business is crucial and must be established from the outset to facilitate obtaining the appropriate permission. Our team can assist clients with all aspects of Irish immigration, including employment permits, applications for Trusted Partner status, visa applications, policy and process design and risk and compliance management:

- Immigration audit health check
- Business traveller advice
- Permit application assistance
- Global co-ordination
- Project management
- Governance of policy change
- Compliance consultations
- Permit expiry tracking
- Corporate and Private Client assistance
- Risk-review analysis
- Training
- Dependant/Spousal permit.

At Deloitte, the immigration, social security and tax services sit within one structure, under one leadership and with one common vision to provide a distinctive client experience. Deloitte's Irish immigration, social security and tax services are delivered by our Global Employer Services (GES) practice.

Global immigration services

We assist many multinational organisations with their immigration needs for business purposes and with facilitating compliance with immigration obligations both by the businesses and the individuals employed by them. We are able to provide assistance with all aspects of global moves, including operational, advisory and strategic advice.

Private client services

Governments worldwide are keen to encourage high-net-worth individuals to live and invest in their respective countries. We work closely with other Deloitte member firms of the global network to provide advice on economic citizenship applications, in particular on the Immigrant Investor and Start-Up Entrepreneur Programmes, recently launched by the Irish Government.
