

1. The competition is open to all students in higher level education in the Republic of Ireland.
2. Applicants/Groups will complete an application form which can be found at www.deloitte.com/ie/toptech.
3. The closing date for receipt of applications is midnight 12 March 2014.
4. Entries made after this closing date will not be counted.
5. The judging panel reserves the right to de-select an application at any stage of the programme. The decision of the judging panel in all matters will be final and no correspondence shall be entered into.
6. Shortlisted candidates/groups will be invited to attend a "development day" at the end of which candidates will perform a 5 minute elevator pitch on a date to be decided by Deloitte in March 2014. Candidates/groups must attend this day in order to qualify for the final event day.
7. Following the development day (approx. a week later) a further shortlist will present their ideas to the judging panel on a date to be decided by Deloitte in March 2014.
8. The winning individual or group will be announced on the day of the final presentations on a date to be decided by Deloitte in March 2014.
9. The winning individual or group can choose €1,000 prize money or 4 weeks of paid work experience with the Technology Integration team at Deloitte.
10. Information submitted to the Top Technology Talent competition will not be shared with anyone other than members of the judging panel and mentors, except with prior and explicit permission.
11. The Deloitte Top Technology Talent Competition recognises that applicants'/groups' ideas are their own. Deloitte will not use proposals or publicise the details of applicants'/groups' ideas without their permission.
12. The presentation of an idea will not restrict Deloitte, its partners and people pursuing an idea which was independently developed or is presented by another party.
13. For further information on the Deloitte Top Technology Talent competition, please email toptech@deloitte.ie.
14. Deloitte reserves the right to amend these conditions.
