

Our Business Travel Advantage platform

Segmenting your approach into three phases provides the strongest framework to identify, assess and manage the complex risk resulting from business travel. Imagine being able to immediately:

- Understand the risks and obligations of potential travel by running hypothetical assessments
- See a heat map of travel routes potentially opening up to corporate risk
- Identify travellers who may not be complying with their obligations or may be causing risk to your organisation.

We can help you track and manage:

- Corporate taxes and entity establishments
- Travel restrictions - quarantine and health
- Immigration – visas and work permits
- Income taxes and US interstate tax
- Posted Workers Directive (PWD) – EU cross border workers rules
- Social Security
- Payroll taxes

The Business Travel platform sits on the Global Advantage platform. Deloitte employs rigorous quality assurance and control mechanisms across our Global Advantage platform.
