

Legal Opinion, Tax Appeal and Litigation Service

Our strong credentials make us a top choice

Legal opinion as a taxpayer's trump card

When a taxpayer is faced with a difference of opinions with the tax authorities during a tax audit or request for assessment, a legal opinion can be the taxpayer's trump card. Increasingly, there are cases where taxpayers' opinions are accepted earlier due to the taxpayer filing a legal opinion explaining the detailed rationale for why the taxpayer's opinion should be accepted, together with supporting evidence.

Tax appeal and litigation as an extension of a tax audit or request for assessment

When a difference of opinions is not resolved during a tax audit or request for assessment, the taxpayer may file a tax appeal and seek a final decision on the matter by the administrative branch. The tribunal will issue a decision based on evidence, hearing from both sides in detail. Engaging in tax litigation can also enable the taxpayer to correct an erroneous legal interpretation.

We provide a comprehensive end-to-end service to resolve tax controversies

We examine the cause of the difference of opinions, provide consultation on the chances of having the taxpayer's opinion accepted as well as the procedures and costs it will take, and use our strong credentials to assist in performing the required procedures from filing a legal opinion to representing you in tax appeal and litigation.

We have strong credentials for resolving differences of opinions with the tax authorities

There are numerous examples where our clients' opinions were accepted. Recent examples of successful cases where our clients' opinions were accepted include the following.
