

Deloitte.

Business breakfast Invitation

Deloitte, an international audit and business advisory company, in cooperation with Swedish, Norwegian, Danish and Finnish Chambers of Commerce has a pleasure of inviting you to business breakfast to be held on 11th February (Wednesday) at 8:30 am at Radisson Blu Royal Astorija hotel (Didzioji Str. 35/2).

Topic: Latest Changes in Lithuanian Tax Legislation: What Is Critical?

The event will focus on practical aspects, risks and new opportunities for businesses resulting from the most significant changes made to the tax legislation and also include a discussion what critical points should be taken into account in 2015.

Speaker: Mrs Alina Jovaišienė, Senior Consultant at Deloitte Tax and Legal Department. Alina is consulting the biggest local and international companies in different industries: IT, real estate, manufacturing, energy and utilities, retail and wholesale, etc. Alina has participated in a number of complex restructuring projects, transfer of significant share holdings in the largest Lithuanian groups and acquisition transactions in Lithuania. The main areas of Alina's competence also include day-to-day consultations regarding corporate taxation, VAT and taxation of individuals, international taxation, tax reviews, due diligences and projects aimed at implementation of tax incentives available in Lithuania (e.g. investment project incentive).

Agenda:

8.30 – 9:00 Registration and Breakfast Served
9:00 – 9:45 Presentation
9:45 – 10:30 Q&A Session, Networking.

Registration:

If you are interested in participation please send an e-mail jolita@swedish.lt no later than 9th February indicating your name, company's name and your e-mail.

Cost:

Deloitte clients and SCC, NLCC, DCC and FLCC members - EUR 24,
Non-members - EUR 28 for a breakfast paying by the bank transfer before the event.

Please note that if you register and do not participate you will be invoiced at a full price.