

Listing

Your challenge

- From time to time, companies seek to list in a stock exchange for various reasons other than raising capital. Being a recognized international listing market for a wide range of securities and financial vehicles, Luxembourg provides a competitive scope of listing opportunities and alternatives. Companies can benefit from access to a large pool of international investment capital, high standards of regulation, a flexible and transparent trading platform and a choice between two markets.
- What distinguishes Luxembourg as a listing of choice is its straightforward listing procedure, reasonable listing fees, quick turnaround time and highly flexible framework.
