D.Share
The collaboration
platform with Deloitte

The concept

Changing times

Firms now place greater emphasis on the need to operate efficiently, while also conscious of the urgent need to boost real-time cooperation capabilities. At the same time, while their workforce is becoming increasingly mobile, companies need to rethink how they engage with an ever evolving market place. In other words, collaboration, mobility, commitment and proximity to clients have become crucial drivers for successful business.

... Introducing D.Share

D.Share is based on two notions that are crucial in business: time and efficiency. It consists in providing a new experience for our clients, via an easy, centralised and user-friendly application, designed to share documents and collaborate with Deloitte.

D.Share is access-secured, customised and creates added value for our clients by:

- Centralising all reports, working documents and deliverables produced (classified with filter function for easy access)
- Providing visibility on planning, teams and invoices
- Providing filtered and privileged access to our publications, hot topics, press releases and events, according to the client's industry

- Creating new and dynamic interaction between our clients and our experts
- Replacing email communication for the exchange of documents
- Providing 24/7 access to clients' documents, deliverables and privileged access to our publication

Key-benefits at a glance

Centralisation of documents

- Final documents and deliverables from assignments and projects directly available on the platform
- Documents classified in order to be easily found (search, filter, etc. functions)

Visibility

- Increased visibility on the Deloitte team working on the project
- Visibility on the planning and next planned deadlines on deliverables

Increased interaction

- Dedicated and personalised access to publications and information related to your needs
- Privileged access to documents published by Deloitte and specific to your industry

Privileged access to informations

- Dynamic interaction with Deloitte experts
- Direct contact with Deloitte team members throughout the whole duration of the project

Efficiency gain

- Supporting and replacing emails communication by document exchange on the platform
- Better classification of documents and easy access by filter functions
- Reminders on reports and documents needed to perform missions (audit)
