Deloitte named a global leader in Enterprise Risk Management Consulting

Luxembourg, 9 March 2017 — ALM Intelligence has named Deloitte a global leader in Enterprise Risk Management (ERM) Consulting. In the report entitled The ALM Vanguard—Enterprise Risk Management Consulting 2017, ALM Intelligence notes, “Deloitte looks to build risk-intelligent organizations by helping clients transform their risk management functions from bolt-on activities focused on value protection to ones that permeate organizational efforts to create value.”

“The recognition of our services by independent analysts underlines that we are on the right track. Our clients’ needs have top priority for us, which is why we regularly conduct client satisfaction assessments,” says Laurent Berliner, EMEA FSI Risk Advisory Leader at Deloitte Luxembourg. “This top ranking for depth of services in enterprise risk management consulting reinforces what clients have been valuing for more than a decade—that Deloitte is one of the world’s preeminent providers of Risk Advisory services.”

The report lays out the opportunities and challenges for Enterprise Risk Management consulting providers focusing on market trends, client spending trends and forecasts, and the provider landscape, and includes profiles of select key firms.

According to ALM, Enterprise Risk Management’s “primary purpose is to give executive leadership oversight of their organization’s risk management initiatives to ensure that management is taking on an appropriate level of risk that is congruent with the organization’s mission, values and culture.”

Additional findings

- “Deloitte applies the nine fundamental principles of its Risk Intelligent Enterprise framework in bringing a common approach and structure to a client’s often disparate information-gathering and risk-mitigation processes. The purpose is to enable everyone in the organization to become responsible, accountable, and capable of addressing risk in a manner that not only complies with regulations, but also furthers the organization’s business objectives and strategic goals.”
- “Deloitte is investing in the development of management decision support tools and analytics that provide leadership with prompt and insightful risk-related information, enabling key decision makers to stay abreast of issues and respond in an appropriate and timely manner.”
- “Deloitte assists clients with achieving risk intelligence by enhancing the alignment, integration, and coordination of risk management among an organization’s functions and business units, with the ultimate objective of embedding it into executive-level strategic planning processes.”

As used in this press release, "Deloitte" refers only to the Deloitte Touche Tohmatsu Limited member firms.
