Fintech and funds on top of the podium

Luxembourg, 25 January 2017: Deloitte Luxembourg's popular white paper "How can Fintech facilitate fund distribution?" won the "Best Investment Technology Paper 2016" award at the Savvy Investor Awards 2016.

The white paper, which was produced by Deloitte in collaboration with Alfi, was launched at the Alfi Spring conference in March 2016. The paper highlights the impacts of Fintech on fund distribution and outlines how Fintech is likely to change the fund distribution landscape in Luxembourg and beyond.

The white paper met with great interest from fund professionals and Fintech players alike and has been referenced regularly in the local and international press since it was published.

"The Savvy Investor Award is yet more proof of the white paper's reach and relevance, and shows that fund expertise in Luxembourg matters far beyond Luxembourg's borders. We are very happy about this award," comments Simon Ramos, Partner and Investment Management Consulting Leader at Deloitte and responsible for the white paper, which is Deloitte's contribution to the ongoing discussion around Fintech and funds.

Savvy Investor is one of the leading knowledge networks for institutional investors. The Savvy Investor Awards recognize the best pensions and investment white papers of the year.

La fintech et les fonds sur la première marche du podium

Luxembourg, le 25 janvier 2017 : L'étude populaire de Deloitte Luxembourg intitulé « How can Fintech facilitate fund distribution? » a remporté le prix du « Best Investment Technology Paper 2016 » (Meilleure étude sur les technologies d'investissement) dans le cadre des Savvy Investor Awards 2016.

Ce livre blanc, produit par Deloitte en collaboration avec l'ALFI, a été lancé lors de la Conférence Alfi Spring en mars 2016. Ce document met en exergue l'impact des technologies financières sur la distribution des fonds et décrit comment la fintech pourrait modifier le paysage de la distribution des fonds au Luxembourg et au-delà.

L'étude a suscité un grand intérêt de la part des professionnels et des acteurs de la fintech, et a été citée régulièrement dans la presse nationale et internationale depuis sa publication.

« Le Savvy Investor Award démontre une fois encore la portée et l'importance de ce livre blanc et montre que l'expertise en matière de fonds au Luxembourg revêt une importance qui dépasse les frontières du pays. Nous sommes très heureux d'avoir remporté ce prix », commente Simon Ramos, Partner et Investment Management Consulting Leader chez Deloitte et responsable du livre blanc qui est la contribution de Deloitte au débat actuel sur la technologie financière et les fonds.

Savvy Investor est l'un des principaux réseaux de connaissances pour investisseurs institutionnels. Les Savvy Investor Awards récompensent les meilleurs livres blancs de l'année en matière de pensions et d'investissement.
