Introduction to course

The IFRS standards have come to be the principal accounting framework for international businesses, replacing many different national accounting standards. Similarly for Myanmar, the new regulations by Myanmar Accountancy Council (“MAC”) will require that all companies have to be IFRS compliant by 2022/23.

A Guide to Essential IFRS aims to simplify complex IFRS accounting standards into simple to understand concepts, enhanced with multiple case studies for participants to practice their knowledge to simulated work scenarios.

Learning objectives

- Gain deeper understanding on the key requirements of the IFRS standards
- Apply the deeper understanding and knowledge to improve work efficiency
