

Executive message

An introduction by the Chief Executive Officer

It is indeed with pleasure that I introduce you to The Deloitte Malta Impact and Transparency Report 2016 - 2017.

Deloitte Malta has changed its reporting date to 31 May in order to align its accounting period with the Deloitte global network, made up of Deloitte Touche Tohmatsu Limited and a network of member firms. Accordingly, this report covers the period from 1 January 2016 to 31 May 2017.

“As our clients continue to navigate the challenges that present themselves in this time of unprecedented disruption, we continue to actively engage with them with a view to offer insightful support across the depth and breadth, of our organisation.”

Our organisation’s Purpose is “to make an impact that matters: for our clients, our people, and society. In each case delivering a measurable attributable impact.

As our clients continue to navigate the challenges that present themselves in this time of unprecedented disruption, we continue to actively engage with them with a view to offer insightful support across the depth and breadth of our organisation. We continue to assist them in reshaping their operating models and governance structures, and in identifying critical success factors that are necessary for them in their quest to enhance the value of their organisations.

We continue to work tirelessly with our people to enable them to realise their vision and reach their potential. We provide them with all necessary support and encouragement in order to help them succeed.

We seek to embrace diversity and reframe uniformity. We foster and encourage a culture of inclusion and unity, and yet strive for homogeneity in the adoption of the high ethical standards that we endeavour to adopt.

We remain committed to play an active role within our communities, by seeking to identify and support the drivers of cultural, environmental, and economic sustainability.

Deloitte professionals remain committed to the success of our clients

Our auditors recognise and understand the importance of public trust and shareholder interests. We carry out duties with the utmost diligence, mindful of the reliance placed on our work. Our commitment to continually raise the standards of quality drives our business.

We are careful on how we share and deliver our knowledge on matters of taxation. We are mindful of public opinion and the importance of transparency. We seek to give our clients confidence in a rapidly changing environment.

Our consulting and advisory practices continue to provide our clients with strategic vision and hands-on expertise in driving and accelerating end-to-end digital transformations by providing innovative thought leadership around digital strategy and business-IT collaboration. We help our clients embrace disruption, working with them to architect their future, and leading them through the turbulence of change to achieve their visions.

The pages that follow present more information about our firm and its achievements. I invite you to read on further to learn more about us, and if you have comments about any aspect of this report please reach out to me by sending an email at mbooker@deloitte.com.mt.

Your views are important to us.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'Malcolm Booker'. The signature is fluid and cursive, with a long horizontal stroke at the end.

Malcolm Booker
Chief Executive Officer (CEO)
Deloitte Malta, September 2017