

Extension of the suspension of all terms applicable to processes before the Secretary of Foreign Affairs due to the sanitary emergency caused by COVID-19

On April 30th, 2020, the Official Diary of the Federation informs about the agreement determining the extension of the suspension of deadlines and terms from April 20th to May 30th of 2020 for those processes carried out before the Ministry of Foreign Affairs (SRE), the above in connection with the health emergency caused by the COVID-19.

Actions, requirements, requests or promotions carried out during the period previously mentioned as non-business day, shall take effect until the first following business day in terms of article 29 of the Federal Law on Administrative Procedure, in conjunction with article 28, third paragraph of that legal order.

The following provisions are to be taken by the General Direction for Consular Services:

- During the suspension, the attention and receipt of requests for any formalities relating to consular, immigration, administrative procedures for acts of civil registration and public faith are suspended.
- The head or responsible for the Consular Section may determine the possibility to take cases of urgent documentation, and documentation related to consular protection emergencies, to issue documents applying the administrative provisions in force for the appropriate procedure.

- The suspension of the issuance of consular and immigration services will end at each consular office after the government authorities of the respective countries officially announce that the COVID-19 pandemic has been controlled locally and, consequently, the resumption of activities is feasible.
