

Extension on the suspension of terms on Immigration processes before the INM (Instituto Nacional de Migración)

On May 27th, 2020, the Ministry of the Interior published at the Official Diary of the Federation the extension for the suspension of all terms and actions applicable for its agencies.

For the INM, the suspension has been set as follows:

Residents (temporal and permanent)

- All terms and expirations are suspended for foreign nationals with the immigration condition of temporal or permanent residency, that are within the country or abroad, including all the processes completed before the Mexican embassies or consulates.

- The suspension is applicable from June 1st, 2020 until the sanitary authorities determine that there is no longer any epidemiology risk related to the reopening of the activities for the Federal Public Administration.

Based on the previous publications of the suspension of terms:

- All the expiries of the immigration conditions that are triggered from April 1st, 2020 shall be filed on the next business day after the suspension is raised.

- As consequence, for legal and/or administrative purposes in the computation of the terms the period from April 1st, 2020 until the suspension is raised, these dates are not to be consider as "business days".

Companies

- This suspension is not applicable. Therefore, any requirements set by the INM shall be fulfil within the time set by the INM (normally, 10 business days after it is notify).
