

The STPS enabled the platform for the registration of specialized outsourcing companies

The Secretariat of Labour and Social Security (STPS) enabled the new platform that will allow companies to enroll in the Public Standard of Contractors of Specialized Services or Specialized Works, and comply with the new provisions of the Labor Reform.

As provided for in the subcontracting reform in the Federal Labour Law, a check is required to identify, register and regulate natural or moral persons providing specialized services or specialized works and to make their own workers available to the contractor for the performance of these specialized works or services.

- In order to obtain the registration of the activities specialized in the Padrón, natural or moral persons must prove to be aware of their tax and social security obligations and to prove the specialized nature of the activities or works that are intended to be registered.
- To obtain registration they must accurately establish the service they want to lend or the kind of work they want to execute. For each activity, the specialized nature of the activity must be established, in protest of the truth, and the elements or factors that support this exceptional character must be described.
- Also, information and documentation will need to be provided, in accordance with the requirements of the platform, regarding: training, certifications, permits or licenses that regulate the activity, equipment, technology, assets, social capital, machinery, level of risk, average salary range, experience, among others.

Those who obtain registration shall be obliged to identify their workers by means of the image, name, badge or identity code linking such workers to the company providing the specialized service or performing the specialized work during the development of their work on the premises of the company that contracts the services.

The STPS will issue a registration notice and the date on which it is to receive the corresponding response, this must occur within 20 days of the registration request.

Cancellation of registration, when:

01. Services that are not registered or that are registered are part of the social object or predominant activity are provided,
02. The existence of debits for credits arising from tax or social security obligations is established,
03. Stop complying with the requirements of registration, violate the Federal Labour Law on outsourcing,
04. Do not renew the registration in a timely time.

As regards contracts condurate by contracting undertakings with undertakings providing specialized services, the registration and publication of the current activity or specialized work of those undertakings shall be recorded.
