

Colombian nationals will require pre-registration to enter Mexico

Impact- High

What has changed?

The Secretary of the Interior, through the INM, has reported that, as of April 1, 2022, Colombian nationals will need to carry out a pre-registration before entering to Mexico, this is mandatory.

What does this change represent?

Colombian nationals who intend to enter the territory of the United Mexican States under any immigration category will need to fill out a pre-registration before to entering Mexico.

The link for it is as follows: link.

Before starting your pre-registration, we suggest you have the following information and/or documentation at hand:

- Details of a contact in the country of origin and another in the country of destination (name and telephone number).
- Valid passport (consider that Mexico requires a minimum validity of 6 months).
- Temporary or Permanent Resident Card issued in Mexico (if you have one).

- Reservation of the place where you are going to stay or proof of address (if you have a family member or acquaintance in Mexico).
- Ticket to leave the country (air, sea or land).
- Travel itinerary (document describing the activities to be carried out during your stay in the country ordered by day and place).

Note:

Digitize the documents and save them in JPG, PNG or PDF format (maximum size

Once you have all the information and documents, go here to start, we recommend you consult the Help section so that you know the process.

Context:

Previously, Colombian nationals did not require pre-registration to enter Mexico, it was only necessary to follow the recommendations imposed by the authorities for their entry depending on the immigration status.

From when will it be implemented?

April 1st, 2022.
