Overview

The Malaysian Accounting Standards Board (the Board) issued MFRS 16 Leases in April 2016 which set an effective date of 1 January 2019.

The new standard will likely present several key implementation challenges for entities, particularly lessees, in addition to technical accounting challenges.

As time has passed near to the effective date, this could be overwhelming if not planned early.

We are delighted to invite you to our MFRS 16 Leases Public Seminar, offering you the opportunity to understand the concepts and principles of this accounting standard to adequately prepare you to deal with the related implications.
