

Why MedGrant™ ?

A one-stop site for Life Sciences companies to offer grants; and healthcare professionals to apply for grants to attend local, regional, and global educational events

Promotes transparency among different stakeholders through an independent matching of educational grants with eligible healthcare professionals

Simplified management of logistics related to Life Sciences educational events

Enables training for credits towards mandatory continuing medical education (CME)