Deloitte Tax Challenge

What participants say

“

DTC serves as a great platform for students to get more exposure on the application of tax in the real world rather than just merely learning the taxation theories. Through this competition, I have obtained quite a lot of knowledge in tax and I am able to sharpen my presentation skill at the same time.

“

DTC offers a great opportunity for students to discover how far they can go beyond their academic boundary. Be it win or lose, the process and experience from the challenge matter the most!

“

DTC was an eye-opener to me and it was indeed a wonderful platform to expose students to the tax industry. I am and always will be grateful for such opportunity which led me to starting a career in tax and joining the Deloitte family!

“

What's great about DTC? The question should be what's not great about DTC? In-depth tax knowledge, presentation skills and a great chance to meet talent from other universities, all achievable through this unique platform. With DTC, I have achieved a milestone and a memorable beginning for my career in tax.

“

It was a wonderful and fruitful experience to be part of DTC 2019. The challenge was eye-opening and a great exposure which shapes who am I today. Stepping out of my comfort zone was not easy, but it was definitely the best choice I've ever made.

“

If you think tax is boring, you obviously haven't been at the Deloitte Tax Challenge before! The DTC is arguably one of the best test circuits for tax IQ out of the classroom and participating in this event will pay dividends for your career in the accounting profession.
