

Indirect Tax Alert Anti-Profiteering Regulations - How can Deloitte help?

As covered in our most recent Alert on 6 June 2018, new anti-profiteering rules took effect from 6 June 2018 and now cover the supplies of ALL goods and services. Click here to read the alert.

The new Malaysian Government has been very clear in their expectation that the prices of goods and services would decrease from the abolishment of GST, and this sentiment has been reflected amongst the general public.

We have already seen action taken by the authorities in querying pricing decisions and issuing notices to a number of our clients.

As we have been contacted by many clients to enquire about how we can help, we have set out below a summary of our general service offering:
