

Deloitte TaxMax Conference 2016

Brave decisions, Brave actions.

One World Hotel, Petaling Jaya (8 November 2016)

The seminar kicked off with a power-packed session (from left to right: Theresa Goh, Deloitte Transfer Pricing Leader, Dato' Noor Azian Abdul Hamid (middle), Deputy CEO of Lembaga Hasil Dalam Negeri (LHDN), and Chow Kuo Seng, Business Tax Audit & Investigation Leader)

Followed by Analysis of Personal Income Tax by Ang Weina (far left), Deloitte Global Employer Services Leader and Michelle Lai, Deloitte Global Employer Services Director

Next on Corporate Income Tax by Sim Kwang Gek, Deloitte Mergers & Acquisitions Tax Leader and Thin Siew Chi, Deloitte Business Tax Director

Deloitte Country Tax Leader, Yee Wing Ping led the Economic Forum focusing on the China-Malaysia cross border investments, the TPPA and how it can benefit the nation.

(From left to right) Syahril Syazli Ghazali, Director of Strategic Negotiations Divisions, Ministry of International Trade and Industry (MITI), Dr Runze Yu, Regional Vice President of Country Garden Holding Co. Ltd., Lim Chee Sing, Chief Economist of RHB Banking Group and the Chairman of RHB Research Institute, Zabidi Mahbar, Executive Director for Strategic Planning, Malaysian Investment Development Authority (MIDA) and Deloitte Country Tax Leader, Yee Wing Peng.

Our guest speaker David Yap, Head of Unit in Regulatory & Legal Services Division, Suruhanjaya Syarikat Malaysia (SSM) shared his experience and insights on Changes in the Companies Act and its implications on corporate tax regime, together with Tan Hooi Beng, Deloitte International Tax Leader

More than 600 delegates were in attendance

Lastly, the event was wrapped up by our Deloitte GST Director, Wong Poh Geng and Deloitte Transfer Pricing Executive Director, Hisham Halim on tax incentives and the TPPA.

Group photo and short catch up after the seminar before we say goodbye