

Tax Graduate Job Description

What qualification will you need?

A tertiary qualification in;

- Bachelor of Commerce majoring in accounting and/or a Bachelor of Law is advantageous
- We are looking for anyone with a degree and passion for Commerce and/or Business and a genuine interest in a career in Tax

What skills do you need?

- Exceptional communication and interpersonal skills
- Driven and highly committed
- Sharp and analytical
- Flexible and resilient
- You'll need to be able to research and translate complex information for clients

What kind of clients will I work with?

- NZ-owned and foreign owned multi-national businesses
- Start-ups including recent Fast 50 winners
- Hospitality clients nationwide
- Agriculture/dairy industries
- Beer and wine industry
- Retail industry

Did you know?

- Consultants get exceptional training in their first few years on core and specialised tax topics
- In your first few years you'll get the opportunity to interact with clients and gain exposure to a wide range of different clients and the issues they face
- You will form part of multiple project teams
- Our tax team specialize in the following areas;
 - Corporate Tax Services
 - Financial Services Industry
 - Indirect Tax Services
 - International Assignment Services
 - National Tax
 - Strategic Tax Services
 - Tax Policy Services
 - Transaction Services
 - Transfer pricing
- In recent years, we have sent staff on secondment to Luxembourg, UK, Ireland, Australia, Canada, USA & Switzerland
- Within 12 months of starting you can be given the opportunity to coach interns

What will you be doing?

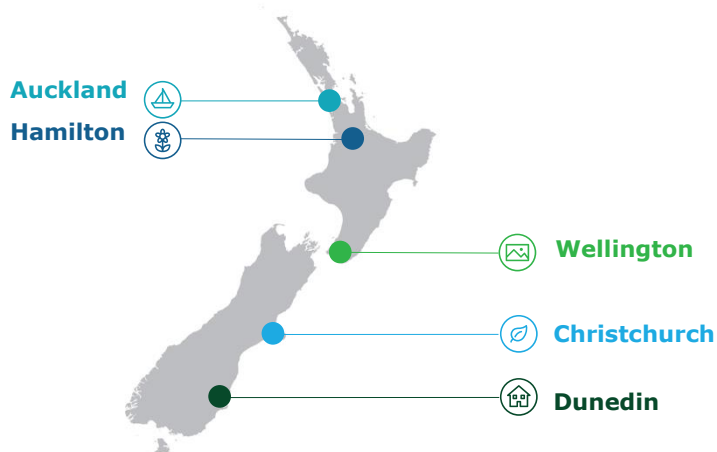

- Assisting in the preparation of income tax returns/ GST returns
- Providing tax advice on a range of complex tax issues to clients
- Using a range of research tools and Deloitte knowledge to provide meaningful solutions to any queries raised by clients
- Assist clients in managing their tax obligations throughout the year
- Engaging with double tax agreements and OECD Transfer Pricing Guidelines
- Building relationships with key client contacts
- Team building with your colleagues – fun activities, dinners, drinks!

What about technology?

- Technology increasingly plays a key role within tax
- We incorporate innovative technologies to deliver valuable insights to clients about their business
- Data analytics, visualization techniques, and artificial intelligence are dramatically changing the way Deloitte is able to approach and conduct tax work
- Basic data skills in particular Excel is now a big advantage

Where can I work?

What impact will you make?

www.deloitte.com/nz/students