

Running legacy, outdated core HCM with customisations or managed directly in payroll. And manual data management.

Rising IT operating and maintenance costs with limited transparency. An organisation expense refocus on specialised sourcing and talent.

Evolving business model focusing on speed to value and heightened expectations for agility and flexibility.

User experience native to a millennial and digitally oriented workforce. Enabling anytime access and mobile collaboration.