Did you know? Sharing information and ideas

Did you know that the Philippine Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) issued a reminder to all Corporations regarding submission of the General and Special Form for Financial Statements (GFFS and SFFS) in electronic format? These are as follows:

- The GFFS and SFFS copy should be in compact disc form properly labelled with the complete name of the corporation.
- It shall be submitted within thirty days from the last day of submission of the annual audited financial statements (AFFS) with a certification under oath by the treasurer, chief financial officer, or a person occupying an equivalent rank in the company that the prescribed accounts and figures provided in electronic documents are based on the contents of the AFFS submitted to SEC.

Failure to comply with the above provisions shall be deemed non-compliance with SEC reportorial requirements and appropriate penalties shall apply.
