Assistant Manager/Manager

Forensic Services

Location: Karachi

WORK YOU WILL DO:

Deloitte Forensic professionals specialize in financial investigations and litigation support. They assist clients and their legal counsel during crises such as allegations of impropriety, corruption, conflicts of interest and regulatory non-compliance. Our professionals advise clients and their counsel by identifying, investigating and resolving financial irregularities and other behaviors resulting in financial, reputational and/or regulatory risk. The Forensic team also works with clients and their counsel to address complex and unexpected business disputes, insurance claims, class actions and associated litigation as well as computer forensic and e-discovery matters. Our professionals rely on our global network, deep industry knowledge and leading edge technologies to collect and analyze data and the evidence required to confirm or refute allegations. Your role will form part of the forensic team, focusing on engagements related to fraud investigations, anti-money laundering, sanctions, bribery and corruption, and conduct matters.

Exciting tasks await you

- Supervise a diverse team of talented forensic professionals.
- Build client relationships.
- Develop business opportunities from sourcing to closing.
- Work in concert with client representatives, lawyers, regulatory agencies and other project stakeholders.
- Apply a structured project management approach that fully satisfies clients and delivers project profitability.
- Further develop your expertise in an area of specialization as well as your reputation as a business advisor.
- Contribute to the growth and development of the practice;
- Help develop and deliver training programs.
- Help train and develop the more junior team resources.
- Work as part of a team and under pressure.
- Leading and mentoring teams through analysis and implementation.
- Manage client expectations and deliver to clients.

You possess the following skills and experience

- CA, ACCA, or Undergraduate degree from a reputable university.
- CFE designation is an asset but not mandatory.
- At least five to seven years of relevant experience; in case of CA / ACCA, the requirement would be three to four years relevant experience post-qualification and/or post articleship period.
- Extensive experience in consulting or providing external advisory services.
- Exceptional communication, writing and presentation skills.
- Proven ability to deliver the full cycle of project management accountabilities.
- Ability to build mathematical representation of various client scenarios and generate robust insights to drive data-driven decision making.
- Experience in diagnosing project-related problems, developing solutions, communicating with clients, coordinating decision-making, producing documents, managing client expectations and leading a team.
- Proven track record of business and practice development.
- A desire to understand business problems and to evaluate the results of your work in a business context, including the ability to analyze a solution and effectively communicate this at various levels within organizations to get support for the solution.
- Manage client expectations and deliver to clients.
- Ability to travel in Pakistan and sometimes abroad.
- Proven quantitative, analytical and problem-solving capabilities.
