Deloitte CIS unlocks the investment potential of Ulyanovsk Region in Japan

Moscow, Russia, 2 March 2016. Deloitte CIS organised meetings between a delegation from Ulyanovsk Region and Japanese companies. They jointly presented a number of Ulyanovsk Region investment projects in Tokyo.

On 29 February and 1 March, as part of Ulyanovsk Region's business mission to Japan, Deloitte CIS and a delegation from Ulyanovsk Region presented regional investment projects to MICHI Creative City Designers Inc. and other companies. The Japanese companies expressed a keen interest in infrastructure and agricultural projects, and projects related to the production of automobile parts.

Mr. Michinaga Kohno, President of MICHI Creative City Designers Inc., praised the investment potential of the SANTOR: City of Education and Technological Entrepreneurship project and proposed to strengthen the cooperation between Ulyanovsk Region and his company in terms of infrastructure improvements in the region.

According to Sergey N. Vasin, General Director of JSC Ulyanovsk Region Development Corporation, the two days that the delegation spent in Tokyo were very productive: "We managed to attend more than twelve meetings and hope that at least three projects will be implemented in Ulyanovsk Region." He also gave special thanks to Deloitte for the assistance and arrangement of the meetings.

Deloitte CIS arranges events independently and invites representatives of the Russian regions to participate free of charge. Qualified specialists in strategy, taxes and finance assist the participants in choosing and presenting projects to prospective investors.
